

LiTE-HAUS seeks artists based in Berlin to exhibit artworks in a group exhibition in late February into March. We prefer small or medium size works, but don't hesitate to apply with any size. The theme is open, with a preference for abstract visual expressions. We welcome photography, painting, mixed media, and other visual disciplines. We are particularly interested in works that explore abstraction through gesture, texture, color, composition, or conceptual approach. The exhibition aims to create a dynamic dialogue between different artistic practices and visual languages, offering a space where diverse perspectives can coexist and interact.
